Watch for Brown Tail Moth.

H. L. Bailey of Bradford was in Barton last week. He stated that he made an inspection of the lights of the village for brown tail moth but found none but he urged everyone to be on the lookout for them. The brown-tail moth is now in the flying stage and people of this vicinity should be on the lookout for it. The moths are pure white except the tails, which are brown as the name implies. They spread from tip to tip about an inch and a half. They are likely to be found flying about lights or clinging to the poles or buildings to which the lights are attached. They may also be found depositing masses of eggs on the leaves of apple, wild cherry or the other trees which they infest. Last year this pest was found in Sutton, and it is important that every effort be exerted to prevent its spread further north. The caterpillar of the moth is not only very destructive to fruit and shade trees, but also causes a highly discomfiting itch, when it comes in contact with the human skin. If moths are located in this town the fact should be reported to H. L. Bailey, Bradford assistant to the commissioner of agriculture, in charge of insect suppression. The caterpillar common to this section this summer is the tent caterpillar, and C. O. Ormsbee, tree expert says in two years the tent and forest caterpillars that have proved such a nuisance this year will have entirely disappeared. His reason for this prediction is that the tiny parasites that devour the cocoons of these worms are getting in their work. There are but few living cocoons of next year's brood left and by the following year Mr. Ormsbee believes they will all be dead.

'PHONE MONOPOLY IN VT.

Special Counsel Report to Governor that They Find Vermont in Grip of Trust. Relief Ordered. Companies Reply.

As mentioned last week in these columns, a report has been made to Governor Fletcher by W. R. Graham of Bellows Falls and E. A. Cook of Lyndon, special counsel to the governor and clothed with authority as special investigators for the public service commission. This telephone inquiry was made on account of complaints concerning service and rates made to Governor Fletcher by telephone subscribers in Orleans and Caledonia counties. They have examined substantially all the telephone companies doing business in the state and they find that the New England Telephone and Telegraph company owns or dominates the entire telephone situation in Vermont, partially by ownership of stock and partially by certain alleged vicious and unlawful traffic and purchasing contracts.

These contracts give the New England company control over the rates, supplies used, transmitters and receivers furnished, and territory occupied to such a degree as to be unlawful and monopolistic.

They find that all information that would be of any great value, so far as figures are concerned, is confined to the Boston office of the New England company. They find unfairness in the division of tolls, unfairness in the method and manner of bookkeeping and covering up of gain for the purpose of showing a lack of profit in the business, they say the New England company advised them to hire a corps of accountants to audit the subsidiary companies' books, and have refused and neglected to furnish them with important information, facts and figures and copies of contracts and documents requested by them.

They find that the American Telephone and Telegraph company controls the New England company, the Western Electric company and other companies with which the New England deals and through the New England the subsidiary and connecting companies in Vermont, and that such control by the American Telephone and Telegraph company vitally affects the business in this state, and in this connection suggest that a national investigation is needed.

Upon request of the officers of the New England and subsidiary companies, a hearing was granted at St. Albans, at which managers, officers and general counsel of the New England and subsidiary companies were present, but no person was present with any information as to the expense of building, equipping and running a telephone business.

The investigation discloses that substantially all of the independent companies as well as connecting companies have kept their lines in good repair and made a very satisfactory profit upon much lower rates than those charged by the New England and subsidiary companies. This, the investigators say, is all the more surprising when it is considered that the independent and connecting companies receive substantially no benefit from toll business. They find that a tax of 44 per cent upon the gross earnings of the New England company is exacted by the American Bell company in payment for, so far as they are able to discover, nothing substantial except transmitters and receivers rented to the New England company; that the entire gross earnings of the New England company for the year 1912 was $16,136,288, and for Vermont for the same year $380,118.66. The investigators finally recommend that the burden in the first instance ought and should rest upon these public utilities to satisfy the public service commission that their rates, charges and methods are fair, just and equitable; said commission having been established by law to protect the public against unjust, unfair and unreasonable practices, charges and rates.

They recommend a 20 per cent reduction of toll rates and a substantial lowering of rates for subscribers' rentals that ought to be put in force, and also recommend such orders by the commission as will prevent any increase of rates, tolls or charges and any limitation of free zone territory in the future, without the consent of the public service commission.

It is recommended that the public service commission order the following rates for telephone rentals in Vermont: Business, 1 party $33.00 Business, 2 party 24.00 Business, 4 party 21.00 Business, more than 4 party 18.00 Residence, 1 party 24.00 Residence, 2 party 18.00 Residence, 2 to 6 party 15.00 Residence, more than 6 party 12.00

After Gov. Fletcher had studied the report of Mr. Graham and Mr. Cook he addressed a letter to the public service commission in which he says:

"Conditions as described in the report of these gentlemen make it imperative for the state to obtain relief for its citizens, and I wish to express my belief that it is your plain duty to take such steps and to issue such orders based upon a liberal and reasonable basis."

Valuable Horse Lost by Fire.

A disastrous fire, in which two of our townsmen, S. M. Bickford and H. A. Harding of Barton, were heavy losers, occurred at Delorimer Park, Montreal about 7 p. m. Friday, July 18th. Mr. Bickford, with W. F. Wormwood of Woodsville, N. H., were owners of Baron Forest, a superb black horse, for which they paid $5,000 in Kentucky a year ago last April, and for which they had refused $3,000 and were holding him for $30,000. His sire, General Forest, was sold for $20,000 and sent to Italy in 1910. Mr. Wormwood also lost High Ball and Sam Rice, the combined value of which was about $13,000. The loss to Mr. Bickford and Mr. Harding in harness and blankets was in the vicinity of $800, besides all their clothing, which was considerable, as they expected to be away for two months, making the usual circuit of New York and Vermont tracks. The origin of the fire is unknown and the total loss, not including the unidentified horses, is estimated at $25,000.

WILL NOW HAVE FAIR.

Reorganization to be Effected Tomorrow. Grounds Will be Purchased by Stock Company Containing About 350 Members from All over the County.

There is no doubt now about there being an Orleans County Fair held this fall, although the exact dates cannot be given out until after tomorrow.

The people of Orleans county have come to the rescue of the county fair by subscribing liberally for stock in an organization for the purchase of Roaring Brook park and the holding of fairs thereon in the future. The organization is to be perfected tomorrow by the subscribers for the stock, notice having been mailed to every subscriber last week that a meeting would be held at Seaver's hall, Barton, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers, deciding on dates for this fall's fair, adopting by-laws, etc. It is anticipated that there will be something doing immediately following the meeting toward booming this fall's exhibition and the people of this section may watch for the dates and the news. Although the time is short, with approximately 350 Orleans county men personally interested and enthusiastically behind the enterprise, a good fair may be looked for.

The matter of purchasing the grounds and reorganizing on a county-wide basis, so successful elsewhere, has been discussed for a year, but only until lately was a determined effort made to carry the idea out. Fifteen or 20 of Barton's business men, after subscribing liberally themselves with others in town, volunteered last week to give their time and effort to a whirlwind, county-wide campaign to distribute the rest of the stock over a wide territory. Consequently several automobile loads of Barton's business men started out Tuesday of last week to various parts of the county and they found deep interest in every quarter in maintaining an Orleans county fair.

It should be understood that the old association did not own grounds but has rented them from F. B. Lang since Mr. Lang bought them of the late F. T. Holder a number of years ago and the old association was limited to 25 members with a capitalization of $2500. The shares of stock in the new organization are set at $25, thus insuring a wide distribution of the stock.

The Barton men who have made this tour of the county request that the Monitor state it has been impossible to visit everyone, owing to the hurried manner in which the canvass has been made. Undoubtedly there are many who would like to take a share of stock for the sake of making this a successful county affair and there will probably be an opportunity for such to subscribe, now or later.

Mrs. E. A. Wheeler and Harlan Wheeler of New Britain, Conn., and Mrs. H. D. Allbee of Littleton, N. H., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baldwin for some time.

F. E. Ryder has opened the Gilman restaurant in the Cassidy block opposite the passenger station. The rooms have been put in fine shape and the public should pay the place a visit.

Mrs. Cora White of Massachusetts has arrived to spend the summer in camp in Crystal Lake grove. She is accompanied by her son and daughter, Leon and Priscilla.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. Kenneth L. Hazen, Mrs. Lilla P. Libbey, Andrew LaClair.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Marsh have moved to Enosburg Falls, where Mr. Marsh has a position in the milk condensing factory. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh will be greatly missed by many friends in town.

Five young horses owned respectively by F. S. Whitcher, W. P. Barrows, C. L. Shores and Fred Jackman were killed by lightning in the Jackman pasture near West Glover some time ago and were found only this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rowen and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barrows went to Montpelier on Tuesday, where a meeting of Shriner's of Mt. Sinai Temple was held and adjourned for a trip next day to Burlington and Ausable Chasm.

Harry Graves of Sherbrooke visited this week at G. H. Davis's. Mr. Graves is now in Barre, where he will become local manager of the sales department of the Buick machine and will later be joined by his family there.

The Woman's Literary club held their annual club day picnic yesterday at the outlet of Maca Brook. Twenty members and four guests were present and while pleasure was the order of the day, yet many questions for the good of the club were considered and reports of Federation work given.

There will be a meeting of the Village Improvement society at the library, promptly at seven o'clock on Thursday evening. Estimates of the cost of the work to be done around the railroad station will be furnished and it is important that members be present.

Mrs. Lydia F. Dwinell, grandmother of A. D. Abbott, quietly celebrated her 94th birthday Saturday, July 19th. Mrs. Dwinell, who was born in Sheffield, has spent most of her life in Glover. She has now in her possession, blankets which she wove herself and for which she spun the yarn, also the wheel and loom on which the work was done. She is in practically full possession of her faculties, attends to various small duties, goes up and down stairs without assistance and assures us that she takes much pleasure in reading the Monitor. Her many friends congratulate Mrs. Dwinell on a life lived in a manner that would enable it to span so many years.

The members of the Ladies' society are invited to hold their annual basket picnic at Mrs. Barron's cottage on Thursday, July 24. Boats will start at 10 o'clock. Members may invite one guest and should provide their lunch and coffee cups. In case of rain, an indoor picnic will be held at the church parlors and a musical and literary program will be given.

At the adjourned school meeting held Tuesday evening, July 15th, the special committee appointed to formulate plans and get estimates for the remodeling of the old school building made its report, and after lengthy discussion of various projects relative thereto, the meeting was adjourned till August 19th, when it is hoped some final conclusion will be reached. Everybody is urged to bear the date in mind and to make a special effort to be present.

The tables were comfortably filled at the supper at the Congregational church Wednesday evening of last week given by the boys of the C. E. society and a large number were served ice cream and cake on the church lawn during the evening while the band rendered a fine concert. The supper was served at 6 o'clock and consisted of beans and a fine spread of good things to go with them. The evening was certainly enjoyed by all who attended and demonstrated that the boys can make a success of whatever they may turn their hand to. Most of the credit for the success of the entertainment must be given to Gustavus Burdick who had the matter in charge.

M. H. Rowell and Robert Otley of the Lowell, Mass., fire department, and who are visiting friends in town, made a shawl one afternoon last week which is an especially interesting piece of work. The shawls were originally made by the Japanese and the method was learned by a fireman and passed around among the firemen of New York and so on to other cities as a pastime while waiting calls. The work is done on a frame by means of a hook, with which half-hitch knots are made with double knots around the outside, 7400 being the whole number in the shawl mentioned. It is especially beautiful when completed and would require a much longer time to make a shawl of the same size with crochet hook or knitting needles.
